ATTUS TECHNOLOGIES ANNOUNCES AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE COMPLIANCE FOR BILLY GRAHAM EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – (November 12, 2008) – ATTUS Technologies, an industry leader in software and services, will provide the international ministry, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, with compliance for Executive Order 13224 under the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).

All U.S. companies are required by federal regulations to monitor interaction with customers to ensure that they are not engaging in business with terrorists.

“The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association is demonstrating what it means to be a good corporate citizen,” said Tom Fedell, CEO of ATTUS Technologies. “They are instituting the necessary tools to make sure they are protecting their customers and their investments while abiding by the requirements the government has established.”

ATTUS Technologies provides regulatory compliance products and services including software, online training courses and information security risk assessment services to a wide-range of industries nationwide.

About Billy Graham Evangelistic Association
