CSI NAMES TWO NEW VICE PRESIDENTS

PADUCAH, Ky. (July 22, 2008) – Computer Services, Inc. (CSI) (OTCQX: CSVI) announced today that its Board of Directors named Andy Burkett as Vice President, Sales and Marketing and Joe Zugmier as Vice President and Corporate Controller at its annual meeting held on June 24, 2008.

Prior to joining CSI, Andy Burkett worked in the banking industry for more than ten years. As Director of Customer Service at Midwest Financial Group, Burkett managed the company's account managers and customer resource representatives. He was responsible for all areas of customer service.

Burkett joined CSI in May 1989 as a Sales Executive responsible for generating customer sales in the Illinois and Missouri markets. In 2000, Burkett was promoted to Regional Sales Manager and later assumed responsibility for the entire CSI Sales team in July 2007. His nearly 30 years of experience in the financial industry make him well equipped to lead the CSI Sales Team.

Joe Zugmier began his career in the financial services industry as a Certified Public Accountant. Zugmier worked in public and regulatory accounting until 1998 when he joined First Commerce Technologies, Inc. (FCT) in Lincoln, Nebraska, where he served as the company's Financial Control Administrator managing the administration of data processing assets and assisted in implementing new telecommunications strategies.

Zugmier joined CSI in 2000 when CSI acquired FCT. Shortly after the acquisition, Zugmier was promoted to Director of Corporate Accounting for CSI. Zugmier's 23 years of combined public, regulatory and corporate accounting experience provide a solid foundation to assume his expanded role as the company's principal accounting officer.
